

ABOUT “NOT MY LIFE”

Not My Life (NML) the first film to depict the cruel and dehumanizing practices of human trafficking and modern slavery on a global scale, has been accepted and embraced as the best film on this subject by the international human rights and anti-trafficking communities. Filmed on five continents, in a dozen countries, NML takes viewers into a world where millions of children are exploited, every day, through an astonishing array of practices including forced labor, domestic servitude, begging, sex tourism, sexual violence, and child soldiering. Translated and subtitled into eight languages, the film has premiered in various European capitals as well as the U.S. Additionally, smaller community-level screenings have been held in 27 countries around the world and have been attended by more than 22,000 individuals.
