

I participated in the Youth Underground awareness-raising film and attended workshops on human trafficking. It was a pleasure to contribute to film! Raising money through bake sales last year was great, as well as participating in supplying classrooms with snacks to sell all year around.

---

ALEKSANDRA, 17