

Oro Cohen

Oro is Personal Assistant to Youth Underground's CEO & Project Coordinator. Her responsibilities evolve around assisting the CEO with day-to-day tasks, supporting social media and marketing efforts, assisting with day-to-day tasks as well as providing help in the organization of meetings and events. Prior to that, Oro held an administrative position in the UN based in Geneva, working for UNEPFI. Some of her tasks included providing assistance with UNEPFI's program of work and on various issues across the board within the secretariat and human resources department, facilitating and assisting the Head of OIC, and supporting the communications team through setting the IT communication structure in UNEPFI. She also held various journalism, production and host positions in both Switzerland and Greece. Oro holds a BA in Journalism from Antenna Journalism School in Athens, Greece as well as a BA in Art History and a Minor in Ancient History from the American College of Greece.