

WHY THE YOUTH?

The youth are not only the prime victims of human trafficking (often as young as five years old), but are also those who speak out – the activists and change-makers – against this illicit trade. They influence their peers as well as adults, such as their teachers and parents. We provide an opportunity to hear what young people have to say, and take their thoughts and concerns on board.

ABOUT US

Our OBJECTIVE is to prevent human trafficking through awareness-raising and advocacy.

Our APPROACH is to enhance the youth's "echo" and use their voice to put the business of human trafficking out of business.

We have two FUNCTIONS:

1. We are a knowledge and youth hub, to showcase initiatives against human trafficking by the youth, as advocates of change and defenders of human rights.
2. We are also a meeting point for private companies and associations involved in making the world we live in, one without human trafficking.

WHAT WE DO

Our ACTIVITIES include:

- Raising awareness about human trafficking in a manner that the youth can understand, and investing in programs that sensitize and benefit the youth and people of all ages.
- Promoting youth initiatives and activities that contribute to combating human trafficking.
- Engaging the youth in developing activities, discussions and tools that contribute to combating human trafficking.
- Acknowledging and communicating worldwide, positive youth initiatives that contribute to combating human trafficking.

HOW?

We carry out our activities by organizing youth events and creating partnerships to gain momentum for our cause, ensuring that through these, the youth are able to express themselves in their own words, in their own way, to their own audiences.

We shouldn't have to say
"Don't buy people."

But we live in a world where buying people is actually a business.

A business where the youth are the prime targets & biggest money-makers.
