

Lauren El Kholy

Lauren is an Intern at Youth Underground. She has created videos and led nothing less than amazing live chats on Instagram with Survivors of human trafficking!

21-year-old Lauren is from Egypt and is currently a junior university student in California. She grew up in Cairo and attended Cairo American College (the CAC) her entire life—from pre-K to grade 12. She was always interested in global issues and human rights. She then moved to Los Angeles for college where she has been for the last three years.

Lauren is studying Diplomacy and World Affairs with a concentration in Economic development and a minor in Gender studies. She just got accepted into a program where will intern at the United Nations in New York City.